

GOING PUBLIC - THE BUFFET! IPO which flavor? Pros & Cons

- Traditional IPO Investment banking consortium, Form S-1, roadshow, public
- Form 10 Private firm sells securities under Regulation D
- Reverse merger Identify public shell, diligence, file Super 8K

GOING PUBLIC – THE TIMELINE The JOBS Act

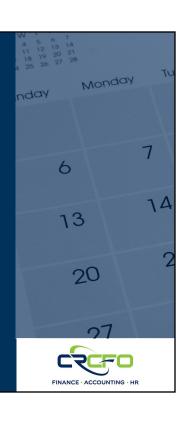

- Testing the waters
- Confidential SEC review
- Scaled financial disclosure
- Internal controls audit
- Executive comp disclosure
- Extended phase-in for new GAAP

3

GOING PUBLIC – THE TIMELINE Calendar

- 0 2 months File S-1 (300+ pages)
- 3 4 months SEC review
- 4 5 months file updated S-1
- 5 6 months receive SEC approval

GOING PUBLIC – THE TIMELINE Items to consider

- What does it mean to "close the books"?
- Plan for the audit
- Understanding the filing date
- Accounting memos
- 409a valuations
- Prepare financials

GOING PUBLIC – THE TIMELINE Getting it done

- How to staff
- Critical project management skills
- Life after going public
- Audit committee
- Policies
- And not to really scare you off... let's talk cost

Audit: $200K - $500K+

SEC Counsel: $200K - $500K

D&O insurance: $500K - $2.0M

Staffing (department): $500K - $850K

Printing and filing: $100K

Plus annual costs

7

FOCUS ON AUDITS

- Are financials reconciled
- Controls documented and tested
- Contracts accounted for properly
 - Cutoff testing?
 - Accruals
- Ready for tax season
- Private or explore public

FOCUS ON AUDITS

- Is the capitalization table up to date
- New 409a needed
- Stock-based compensation
- Equity instruments recorded
- Sufficient internal staff resources

WHAT TYPE OF AUDIT

- Different auditing standards
 - AICPA vs. PCAOB
- The importance of independence

The Charles River CFO Advantage 20+ years experience Industry depth Variable resource model Flexible contract Team approach

FINANCE · ACCOUNTING · HR

Charles River CFO

CFO, Accounting, Tax, and HR Services

We are smart, nimble, and flexible.
Charles River CFO
www.crcfo.com
Jack Sullivan
781.431.0420 #1
jsullivan@crcfo.com

